

BOY OF FIVE KILLED IN FRONT OF HOME BY MOTOR TRUCK

Unidentified Man Meets
Death When Struck by Truck in Brooklyn.

MANY OTHER MISHAPS.

Jersey City Trolley Strikes
Auto, Severely Injuring Four Persons.

Five-year-old Edward Zenora was instantly killed to-day in front of his home, No. 532 West 20th Street, when he was hit by a New York Central Railroad auto truck driven by Joseph Trimble, twenty-one, No. 47 Tenth Avenue. The auto was being driven west on 20th Street when it hit the boy.

Patrolman Frank A. Fitzpatrick of the West 20th Street Station arrested Trimble and later arrested him before Magistrate McGeehan in Jefferson Market Court. He was held in $1,000 bail for homicide court.

An unidentified man about forty years old, dressed in a dark suit, red sweater and a gray cap, was run down and killed by an automobile truck loaded with barrels of cement in Dean Street, near Stone Avenue, Brooklyn, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The driver of the truck said the man stepped off the sidewalk and started across the street without paying attention to traffic. Witnesses corroborated the driver, who was not arrested.

Three women and two men were hurt at 2:30 A. M. to-day when a taxi cab going north on the Bowery collided with a taxicab at Grand Street.

In the taxicab, driven by Ruben Glassheimer, No. 442 East 58th Street, were Madeline Cullen, nineteen, No. 903 Park Place, Clara Allen, twenty-one, No. 874 Lincoln Place, and William J. Morton, twenty-one, No. 10 Pilling Street, all Brooklyn addresses. They were all thrown to the street.

Alfred Puffer, twenty-nine, No. 291 South Third Street, Brooklyn, was driving the taxi cab, in which were Margaret Berlin, twenty-six, No. 147 Power Street, and Thomas Corbett, twenty-eight, No. 6509 Bay Parkway, Brooklyn addresses. Both drivers suffered injuries. An ambulance surgeon from Gouverneur Hospital treated the others for cuts and bruises.

A belt line trolley car early to-day struck a sedan auto operated by Michael Davis of No. 175 Bright Street, Jersey City, at the intersection of Newark Avenue and Brunswick Street, in that city, and severely injured four persons in the machine. The auto was thrown onto the sidewalk.

The injured, Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rose of No. 388 Fifth Street, were taken to the City Hospital for treatment, and later removed to their homes.

Samuel Jacobs, nineteen, No. 443 East 159th Street, Brooklyn, refused to go to hospital after a truck ran over him, and is in a serious condition to-day at his home.

Last night he left the truck at Third Avenue and 93d Street and when he tried to jump on the running board missed his footing and the front wheel passed over his body.

August Schuch, eleven, No. 148 East 90th Street, was struck at Lexington Avenue and 94th Street by a taxicab driven by Isidore Simon, No. 551 West 172d Street, last night, and is in Mount Sinai Hospital with a fractured skull. The chauffeur was arrested.

GIRL WHO FELL FROM TAXI UNIDENTIFIED

Richly Dressed Young Woman Still Unconscious in Hospital.

The pretty, blond young woman who fractured her skull last night by falling from a taxicab in 18th Street near Ninth Avenue has not yet recovered consciousness at the New York Hospital and the police have not learned her identity.

She lived in the "Contestants' cab" at 31st Street and Eighth Avenue and drove to 23d Street, where the driver, says, talked with a man for two hours. Then she remembered the cab and said she would tell the driver when she stopped. She tapped on the window, he says, and signalled him to stop in 23d Street between North and Tenth Avenue. She stepped out of the cab, fell out as he started toward the curb.

She is about twenty-five years old, 5 feet 2 inches in height and weighs 125 pounds. She wears a brown coat with a fur collar, a black satin dress, black satin pumps, black silk stockings and a brown felt hat.

WOMEN SHOPLIFTERS,
EYES ON WINTER COLD,
STEAL WARM CLOTHES

Two of Six in Court Sentenced
Chorus Girl, Hysterical, Is Carried From Room.

The half dozen women charged with shoplifting, arrested by detective of the "Horse" Mutual Protective Association and arrested to-day in Special Session, had an eye to the coming cold weather. In every case they were accused of stealing warm clothing.

Two were sentenced. The others will be tried later. Mrs. Isabella Smith, No. 2233 Surf Avenue, Coney Island, was sent to the island for thirty days for the theft of a $45.00 coat. Detectives said her husband did not provide for her and she lived by selling things she stole.

MAJESTIC SAILS WITH A NOTABLE PASSENGER LIST

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and George M. Cohan Among Those on Board.

The White Star steamship Majestic, her bottom freshly painted and four new propellers to drive her, sailed for Southampton and Cherbourg at 11 o'clock this morning with 300 passengers in her first cabin. Sir Bertram Hayes, her commander, said he did not intend to drive his ship just because she was clean, but would keep her at 25-knot speed for the run.

A delegation of Girl Scouts was at the ship to bring a great bouquet of roses to Mrs. Nicholas P. Brady, their National Treasurer, who sailed with Mr. Brady. He too received an offering, a nosegay for his buttonhole. Alice Hastings of No. 537 West 133d Street presented the roses to Mrs. Brady, and Agnes Riordan of No. 401 West 126th Street put the little knot of flowers in Mr. Brady's lapel.

The Bradys are to spend the winter in Rome and will have an audience with the Pope. It has been rumored that Mr. Brady is to receive a high decoration from the Pope, but he denied this to-day.

George M. Cohan, his mother, Mrs. Jerome Cohan, and his son, George Jr., were on the list. Mr. Cohan said he didn't know where he was going nor how long he would be away. But he will visit his daughters Helen and Mary at their school in Paris. He has his eye on a foreign play, he said.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, accompanied by Mrs. William Joy and Miss Charles Moran, also sailed. Miss Alice Paul and Miss Mary Shaw were at the steamship to see them off. Mrs. Belmont, who will spend the winter at Eze, near Nice, said she was placed by doctors as having been abroad to translating literature of the woman's movement in this country into foreign languages, as the movement had now become international.

When the Majestic was docked recently for cleaning at South Boston her four bronze propellers were placed by others. Two of the old ones were in her cargo to-day, being taken back by Prof. Wesley Lambert, a metallurgist, who will study the corrosion they show with a view to overcoming it in future alloys.

POST-MORTEM ON PRINCE SHOWS MARKS OF BLOW

Jawbone Bruised—Husband of Princess Held Responsible.

DETROIT, Nov. 25.—The body of Frederick W. Prince of New York, found dead in the hall of an apartment house here early Wednesday morning, was examined to-day by a coroner's jury. The marks of a blow struck against the jawbone two inches to the right of the chin. This was announced by county physician to-day as having been revealed in a post-mortem examination yesterday.

Following the post-mortem, the physician said no marks of a blow had been discovered, adding, however, that yesterday's discovery was kept from the public to permit detectives to follow physical hints to-day as having been revealed in a post-mortem examination yesterday.

Wesley H. Pett, husband of the woman upon whom Prince and a party of friends called at his apartment, is being held by the police on a charge of having been in the room at the time Prince was killed. It is said, and broke into the room, where a party is said to have been in progress. The physician's report of the autopsy has been held, however, as they say Prince received would have been sufficient to cause death.

NEUTRAL ZONE FIXED ON TURKISH FRONTIER

Agreement Reached by Commission
Gives Bulgarians Outlet to Sea.

LAUSANNE, Nov. 25.—The Lausanne Conference arrived openly at its first agreement to-day. One of three sub-divisions of the conference, agreed upon establishment of a demilitarized zone thirty kilometers on either side of the Turkish frontier from the Black Sea to the Aegean. Bulgaria is provided with an outlet to the latter waters.

Isabel Pash's delegation demanded guarantees against militarization could be discussed, after the question of freedom of straits had been agreed, a press representative of each nation was present at the session.

FIRE SWEEPS COAL PIER; BURNS SCOWS AND CARS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—Thousands of tons of coal were destroyed here shortly before midnight when fire swept a coal pier of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway.

Four or five hundred twenty-ton cars loaded with coal became a molten mass when flames fed by embers stained the pier. The pier was a costly structure. Firemen had difficulty in fighting the blaze because of a high northwest wind, and it was three hours before the conflagration was under control.

CHICAGO WILL TEACH "SEXOLOGY" TO GIRLS

Becomes Part of Curriculum for Older Students.

"CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Sexology will become part of the curriculum for older girls in Chicago's High Schools, Peter A. Mortenson, Superintendent, announced to-day.

Arrangements will be made next week for a meeting of deans of girls, who will be instructed for teaching the new course.

Yale's Famous Gridiron Champions of '92, Goal Line Never Crossed, Hold Reunion

Old Stars, All of Whom Have Kicked Goals on the World's Field of Success, Entertained at Dinner by Vance McCormick, Their Old Captain.

Twelve members of the Yale football team of '92 had a reunion dinner at the University Club last night. They had as their guests coaches and managers of famous Yale teams as far back as 1888. The team of '92 is not only noted for its season of clean, complete victories (not a single score against it), but also for the success of its men in business and professional life.

Gathered at the table last night were financiers, a lawyer, a publisher, a railroad president, brokers, a manufacturer, an engineer, a merchant—all men who have not only played champion football but have buckled the line of life for a touchdown. Several of them have soared to distinction like meteors. Vance McCormick would call that kicking a goal in the game of life.

That's just about what he has done. It took him, a Yale man, to make the Princeton man President of the United States in 1916. Mr. McCormick was captain of the famous team, and last night he was host to his teammates. He came all the way from Harrisburg, where he publishes a newspaper, to entertain his old comrades, and they were all there with two exceptions.

The first one on hand after Mr. McCormick last night was the famous "Pop" (Clifford D.) Bliss, the only man who ever dined at a signal and made a touchdown against Harvard. Mr. McCormick was talking with an Evening World reporter when Mr. Bliss walked in.

"Hello, 'Pop,'" shouted Mr. McCormick, jumping up. "And here stood the same old 'Pop' of thirty years ago, the only difference being his dinner coat and his plaiting, row pale. 'Pop' played right half in those old days and, according to his own admission, he was the snappiest in the history of Yale. That famous touchdown against Harvard was made on the 35-yard line and the whole Harvard team massed against a center rush, the only tactics employed up to that time. 'Pop' got an inspiration and dashed around right end and fell on the line untouched by a Harvard man."

"Koolha, Koolha!" "Pop" reminisced a little last night when he thought of his nearly hairless head. "On those days they used no head protectors and to protect your head you let your hair grow long so as to form a mat on which to fall. I never cut it but then, after Aug. 1, preceding the football season. By Thanksgiving they had acquired marvelously thick hairbrush helmets, with one or two exceptions. On the day after Thanksgiving, when the mat was all washed out of it, they tossed themselves to the barbers."

Frank Butterworth had the thickest head of hair: Hamilton Wallis, who had trouble getting his thick enough.

The youngest member of the team was Philip T. Stillman, the "Kip" center, now of Elizabeth, N. J. He was just seventeen. The youngest member of the Yale team to-day is nineteen. James A. McRea, now President of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was then twenty-eight, and "Pop" Bliss was then twenty-one, oldest member of the team.

Gathered in the reception room in one group were "Pop" Bliss, his brother, Laurence Bliss, and Mr. McCormick.

"We were the best goal field in America," said Mr. McCormick, with the approval of his friends.

Frank Hinkey, Captain of '92 and '94, and the greatest end in Yale's history, was not present last night.

Speaking of long hair and the Bliss brothers, "Laurie" was the hero of the Yale fighting song of his time whose refrain ended:

"Laurie Bliss's hair was waving
"Like a big city's pantomime—
"Mum."

REPRISALS FEARED FOR EXECUTION OF ERSKINE CHILDERS

Irish Lord Chancellorship is abolished, while a Court of Appeal for Northern Ireland is established.

It provides for the temporary continuation of the present system of taxation and gives the Irish Free State power to adopt acts applicable to other dominions.

The first schedule contains eighty-eight articles. It is decreed that the national language in the Free State shall be Irish, but English given equal recognition as an official tongue.

The Legislature will consist of the King and two Houses, a Chamber of Deputies and a Senate, known generally as the Dail Eireann. All citizens twenty-one years of age have the right to vote for members of the Chamber while all citizens thirty years of age may vote for the Senate.

The oath to be taken by members of the Oireachtas is as follows:

"I, —, do solemnly swear true faith and allegiance to the constitution of the Irish Free State as by law established, and that I will be faithful to the duties of my office as a member of the Oireachtas as by law established and successors by law, in virtue of the common citizenship of Ireland with Great Britain and her adherence to and membership in the group of nations forming the British Commonwealth of Nations."

The Chamber (Dail Eireann) shall have legislative authority and money bills exclusive of the Senate (Sean Eireann).

The Oireachtas may provide for the initiation by the people of laws and constitutional amendment.

Except in case of actual invasion the Irish Free State shall not be committed to active participation in war.

Among other things it is provided that every Minister shall have the right to attend and be heard in the Senate and that the appointment of a member of the Chamber to the Ministry shall not entail the obligation to resign his seat or submit himself to reelection.

The Irish Free State "Consequential Provisions" Bill, modifying the Government of Ireland Act of 1920 and carrying provisions with regard to the power of Judges, the adaptation of enactments, relief from double taxation, etc., limits the application of the 1920 act to Northern Ireland. The bill provides for the appointment of a Governor of Northern Ireland at a salary of $5,000, out of which sum he may receive salaries and allowances of his personal staff.

A Privy Council of Northern Ireland is established, to be chosen by the Governor, and no person shall be a Minister unless he be a Privy Councillor.

Under the financial sections of the bill it is provided that contribution toward imperial liabilities is limited to Northern Ireland and that no amount shall be determined by a joint Exchequer Board, which shall also control the appointment and proceeds of the reserved taxes.

PLACE OF EXECUTION OF CHILDERS UNREVEALED

LONDON, Nov. 25.—(Associated Press.)—The place and nature of the execution of Freddie Childers had not been officially announced this morning, Sunday, but it is also a refusal to cooperate with the British Labor Party—which naturally supported the invitation—in trying to find ways and means of preventing future wars, a labor official said.

George Lansbury, Labor M. P. and former editor of the Daily Herald, Labor's organ, said: "I think the American Federation of Labor is making a very big mistake. We cannot hope to rebuild the world without America, especially American labor."

REFUSAL BY GOMPER'S PEACE PARLEY BID STIRS BRITISH LABOR

Copyright, 1922 (New York Evening World), by Press Publishing Company.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—British labor is deeply disappointed at the refusal of the American Federation of Labor to join the International Labor and Peace Societies Conference on World Peace at The Hague next month.

It is not only a refusal of the international invitation issued by the Secretariat of the International Federation of Trade Unions at Amsterdam but it is also a refusal to cooperate with the British Labor Party—which naturally supported the invitation—in trying to find ways and means of preventing future wars, a labor official said.

George Lansbury, Labor M. P. and former editor of the Daily Herald, Labor's organ, said: "I think the American Federation of Labor is making a very big mistake. We cannot hope to rebuild the world without America, especially American labor."

Charlie Chaplin Engaged To Marry Pola Negri, Polish Star, Report From Los Angeles

Famous Comedian Interviewed Would Not Affirm or Deny Rumor; Says Announcement Must Come
From Her—Marriage No Crime, He Adds.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 25.—The Los Angeles Times to-day published a news story stating that reports of a motion picture circles were that Charlie Chaplin, movie comedian, and Pola Negri, Polish screen tragedienne, were engaged to be married.

"I cannot say 'yes,'" Chaplin was quoted. "Any such announcement must of necessity come from her. Neither can I say 'no.' Think of the position that would place her in."

According to the Times, Mrs. Negri cancelled an engagement to give a representative of that newspaper an interview when she received intimation of the subject he wished to discuss.

The Chaplin-Negri romance, the paper continues, had its beginning when Chaplin toured Europe last year.

When Negri recently arrived here and again met Chaplin she was said to have exclaimed:

"This is what I have looked forward to ever since I started."

They are said to have been "almost inseparable" since she reached Los Angeles.

After at first declining to discuss personal affairs, Chaplin said, according to the Times:

"I can't say 'yes'; any such announcement must of necessity come from her. She is a gentlewoman and a foreigner, don't you see? She does not understand American ways in affairs of this kind. She would resent my making a statement. And if I said 'no'—just look at the position in which that would put her."

Later Chaplin commented, "marriage is no crime."

The comedian is said to have moved recently from a small cottage into a house of many rooms and to be occupying it alone.

There have been many reports in the last year that he was to marry. He formerly was the husband of Mildred Harris, screen and vaudeville actress.

MILLIONAIRE AUTO DEALER SHOT DEAD; CHICAGO MYSTERY

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—(Associated Press.)—Lanús, a millionaire auto dealer, was shot dead to-day in his office in Chicago, having sold more than 300 new cars this year.

"I had heard that Lanús was engaged to Miss Maybelle Gray of Ludlow, Ky., who made frequent visits to Chicago to see him," Miss McArdle continued. The girl said she had left the office at 2 o'clock, the usual time last night.

LEFT HIM IN HIS OFFICE WITH STRANGER.

"Lanús wanted me to stay late to allow him to call on a woman customer, but I refused," she added. "When I left Lanús was in the office with another man whom I had never seen before."

The body was found two hours later by John Anderson, who conducts a nearby garage.

"I heard two shots and went immediately to Lanús's office. I saw no one but heard groans. In investigating I found Lanús lying on the floor, his head on the wall. No one else was in the garage when I entered," the garage man said.

Two pistols were lying near the pool of blood. Both were identified as the property of the slain man. Two exploded and five unexploded shells were found in a .45 calibre revolver, while all of the cartridges in a smaller pistol were intact.

When Edward Lanús, the brother of the slain man, was questioned, he said he had formerly been in business with his brother but they had quarrelled and he had not seen him for two months. That robbery might have been the motive was discarded when a diamond ring worth $1,000 was found on Lanús's finger and his watch and a large sum of money were found in his
